Dear Mr. Reuss:

Following our letter of 15 February concerning [redacted] appropriate Agency officials reviewed his Form 57 and expressed interest in obtaining additional details of his background and experience. Accordingly, we sent him our application forms on 1 March.

Although [redacted] wrote on 6 March to inform us that he would complete the forms and return them as soon as possible, we have not heard further from him. We have concluded, therefore, that he has decided not to pursue employment further with us at this time and are placing his file in an inactive status.

We appreciated your referral of [redacted] and we shall give him every consideration if he should submit his papers at a later date.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Daddario:

Thank you for your letter of 17 May concerning the application of [ ] for employment with this Agency.

Mr. [ ] of my office has discussed [ ] application with a member of your staff. As he indicated, [ ] application was reviewed recently but we did not have an opening appropriate to her qualifications at the time and this situation has not changed in the meantime. However, [ ] background is of general interest to us and we plan to review her file again in September to determine whether a suitable vacancy might have developed by that time.

Your interest in writing to us on [ ] behalf was appreciated and we shall advise you of the outcome of our next review of her file.

Dear Senator Scott:

STAT
Thank you for your letter of 22 May concerning the application of [redacted], for employment with our Agency.

[redacted] initially contacted us in August 1962 in connection with his interest in service with us, and subsequently submitted formal application papers for our consideration. His application was first considered in connection with a special training program for junior officers entering the Agency on a career basis and later for other openings which might take advantage of his background. However, we did not locate an appropriate opportunity for him. He was advised of this result in a letter dated 13 May 1963, a copy of which is enclosed for your information.

Your interest in writing to us on [redacted] behalf was appreciated. You may be sure that he will receive every consideration if a suitable vacancy should develop at some future date.
